

POSITION: CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

REPORTING TO: CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

ABOUT THE COMPANY:

- Demshi Investment Holdings (Pty) Ltd is a registered Namibia private company with focus in the mobile telecommunication sector. Demshi Investment Holdings (Pty) Ltd is currently rolling out a country wide public Wi-Fi network in Namibia, starting with the City of Windhoek, in order to provide fast, reliable and affordable internet services in Namibia through a world class wireless network.

PURPOSE OF THE JOB:

- We are seeking to recruit the services of a person with the requisite financial skills but yet whose role will go beyond managing the company finances. A driven and highly analytical person whose role is implanting the company's path of growth, form new relationships, drive measurable value, establish core financial processes and reporting requirements.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Provide executive leadership in the continuous evaluation of short and long term strategic financial objectives, and offers recommendation to enhance financial performance and business opportunities
- Direct and oversee all aspects of the finance, accounting and administrative functions of the of the organization
- Drafting and Providing timely and accurate analysis of budgets, financial trends and forecast.
- Development and implantation of financial strategy, metrics tied to the overall organization strategy and the ongoing monitoring and development of control systems designed to report accurately financial results and preserve company assets.
- Compile and analyses cash flow, cost control, expenses and all financial statements to pinpoint potential areas of improvement

- Work with external auditors and other executives in the organization to ensure the company achieves and maintains compliance with general accepted accounting principles, internal controls and all other statutory requirements.
- Responsible for coordinating with inland revenue for tax related issues and returns.
- Provide the CEO with advice on the financial implications of decisions,
- Oversee the organizations risk management, including general liability and related insurances coverage and risk mitigations.
- Training and increasing awareness and knowledge related to financial management matters across the organization
- Establishing and maintaining a strong relationship with other executives in the organization and seek full understanding of their operations.

REQUIREMENTS

- Prior experience in an accounting/finance role, preferably with background in telecommunications
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills along with advanced presentation skills
- High level of integrity and dependability with a strong sense of urgency and result orientation
- Strong problem solving and strategic thinking skills and the ability to exercise sound judgement and make decisions on accurate and timely analyses.
- Strong leadership skills and ability to motivate
- Strong negotiations skills and interpretation of contracts
- Accounting and or Finance graduate
- MBA (Finance) will be a distinct advantage

Only e-mailed Curriculum Vitae will be considered!!

Deadline: 19 July 2019

Please kindly forward your Detailed Curriculum Vitae to:

The Chief Executive Officer

Demshi Investment Holdings (Pty) Ltd

P.O Box 81474

Windhoek

info@demshiinvest.com